NEW MEXICO DASHES.

The board of trade, of Albuquerque, has passed a series of resolutions strongly commending Delegate Joseph's land claim bill, and asking the senate to pass it in place of the Edmunds bill.

Thomas S. Tucker, a Santa Fe pioneer, died on Monday in that village, he was one of the founders of the New Mexican. The deceased has held the position of lieutenant in the New Mexico volunteers, and served four terms as adjutant general of the territory, two under Governor Giddings and two under Governor Axtell.

While passing down the road Gen Waliace was talking to a friend and gaye utterance to the following; speak ing of New Maxico. "It is the grand-est strip of land in the west; its resource are innumerable, and as for Grant county," said General Wallace, "I will tell you, sir, I believe that county alone has more rich mineral beneath its sur-face than the whole state of Colorado.

Extensive arrangements have been made this year for the observance of Memorial day at Albuquerque, but the members of Carleton Poss, U. A. R., will see that the proper ceremonial services of the order are also held in Santa Fe. The post has selected the following committee to make all the necessary arrangements: Comrades Francis Downs, Henry M. Davis, P. F. Herlow, H. M. Atkinson, and E. W. Wynkoop.

Col. Eaton, of Socorro, has tendered his resignation as mayor of that city, and J. W. Woodyard has been appointand J. W. Woodyard has been appointed by the council to fill the position. Col. Eaton is one of Socorro's most energetic and progressive citizens, and it was only his positive refusal to fill the position, that caused the council to accept his resignation. They adopted resolutions thanking him for the able, efficient and importial manner in which he has filled the positios.

The railroad mail service between New Mexico points could not possibly be worse than it is. Complaints over failure to receive letters and papers within reasonable time after mailing comes in from all quarters. A sample of this negligence cropped out today when the southern mail failed I to bring any registered pouch at all, but lastead brought to the Santa Fe office a pouch full of mail matter that should have gone to East Las Vegas. City Postmaster Seliman is not a little annoyed at this state of affairs and will do his best to see if the thing can't be remedied at to see if the thing can't be remedied an early day,—New Mexican.
